MEMORANDUM ENDORSEMENT

Dynarex Corp. v. Farrah et al.,
18 CV 7072 (VB)

In the attached letter dated June 10, 2019, defendant Richard Farrah, proceeding pro se, states he sent a letter regarding this matter on September 13, 2018 (a copy of which he attaches to the instant submission) and “had not realized that I had to respond to the am[]ended version until I seen your decision recently.” Farrah further states, “I most certainly would like . . . my name and there false allegations cleared up as soon as practicable.”

It is unclear what relief, if any, defendant Farrah requests. However, to the extent Farrah does request relief, it is DENIED.

The Court dismissed all claims against all defendants in its May 28, 2019, Opinion and Order (Doc. #67), which Farrah clearly received because he attached the first page of the Opinion and referenced it in his letter. Moreover, the Clerk entered Judgment on May 30, 2019 (Doc. #68), and closed the case the same day. Thus, Farrah’s reasons for failing to respond to the amended complaint are beside the point, as is his request “clear[] up” “false allegations.”

In addition, Farrah states he intends to “counter sue my former employer for numerous reasons” and is working with an attorney to do so. In the next sentence, however, Farrah states he doesn’t have the financial ability or time to hire an attorney and requests the Court to “clear this matter and considered it closed.”

To the extent Farrah requests an attorney to represent him, that request is also DENIED.

This case is closed, all claims have been dismissed, and Farrah has not raised any claims against anyone—nor could he without filing a separate complaint and commencing a new civil action.

In addition, Farah's letter is addressed to my Chambers. Farrah shall address all future correspondence to the Pro Se Clerk at the following address:

United States District Court
Pro Se Clerk
300 Quarropas St.
White Plains, NY 10601

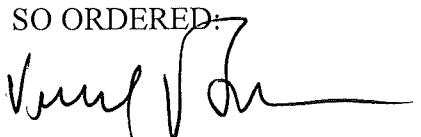

The Court may disregard any future submissions sent directly to Chambers.

The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order to defendant Farrah at the address on the docket.

The Court certifies pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this Order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444–45 (1962).

Re: Civil Action # 7:18-CV-07072 – VB

Dear Judge Briccetti:

Please be advised I am in receipt of this civil suit against me. I would like to request an extension on this matter due to the fact that I am defending myself on a Pro Se basis. I do not have the financial means to pay an attorney. I need time to seek any kind of legal advice I can which will take time to respond to these allegations.

Sincerely,

Richard Farrah
Defendant
